The Manager,
Podiatry Care Professionals Pty. Ltd.,

Dear Sir,

We act on behalf of Podiatry Care Professionals. Our client has sought our advice in relation to a number of serious falsehoods which have been perpetrated on their business. They include allegations of dishonesty in relation to the failure of Aged Foot Care Pty. Ltd. and Police investigations in relation to the activities of one Marcus Doille.

We are instructed that the failure of Aged Foot Care Pty. Ltd. had nothing at all to do with Marcus Doille. This can be confirmed by and can be checked with the Accountant for the company and its Administrator.

We are further instructed that there are no Police investigations current against Marcus Doille. We are informed that the last time he saw a Policeman was to get advice about obtaining an Intervention Order against a former employer who now competes with the business Podiatry Care Professionals Pty. Ltd. We are instructed the former employer was named as a source by a journalist who has said that that person wants to destroy Podiatry Care Professionals Pty. Ltd.

We are instructed that Marcus Doille has no role in the management of the company.

We have advised the company that because of a recent change to the law it cannot sue for libel, which it otherwise certainly would have done. That change was brought in at the request of media magnates like the publisher of The Herald Sun.

Yours faithfully,
PATRICK CASH & ASSOCIATES
